

ROBIN

EGGS OF ROBIN

MAGPIE

EGGS OF MAGPIE

WOOD-PIGEON

EGGS OF WOOD-PIGEON

W. B. G.

H. Bowler

Copyright London
Printed in England

BIRDS ON THE WING.—Series I.
Raphael Tuck & Sons' "Oilette" Postcard No. 3324
—AT PUBLISHERS TO THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING & QUEEN—
After the Original Painting by M. BOWLEY.

By Appointment

2212796

TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE

FOR ADDRESS ONLY

The Robin is the greatest favourite of all British birds. He has a pretty song, and sings in all seasons of the year.

The Magpie has a long iridescent green tail which it raises as it alights. Its call is a harsh chatter.

The Wood Pigeon is otherwise called the Ring Dove : its note is "coo-oo-oo, coo-oo-ooo." You can tell it by its white collar and wing bars.

CTPA12.9